Volunteer Reviewers Needed for NCWIT Aspirations in Computing (AiC)

VOLUNTEER AiC APPLICATION REVIEWERS DIRECTLY CONTRIBUTE TO THE RECOGNITION AND ENCOURAGEMENT OF MORE THAN 17,000 TECHNICAL WOMXN.

Be inspired by the next generation of technologists who self-identify as women, genderqueer, or non-binary! NCWIT needs your help to review applications for three AiC awards this 2020-21 season:

- the Award for AiC (for students in grades 9-12)
- the NCWIT Collegiate Award (for college students)
- the National AiC Educator Award (for informal and formal educators of students in grades 9-12)

95%

Ninety-five percent of AiC application reviewers report that it was a great experience! It doesn't take much: volunteer reviewers complete application reviews at their own pace, and spend an average of three hours reviewing.

WHO CAN VOLUNTEER?

All individuals who are interested in encouraging womxn in tech are welcome to volunteer, including eligible AiC Community members! [Note: technical people are particularly encouraged to volunteer for reviewing NCWIT Collegiate Award applications.]

We receive thousands of award applications each year, and we need lots of volunteers. Please SHARE this opportunity with anyone who may be interested.

WHEN CAN I VOLUNTEER?

Plan to start on October 22 and continue through December 11, 2020; though review deadlines for the awards are staggered. Additional opportunities will be available between February 1 and March 5, 2021 for the Finalist Round of the Collegiate Award and the National Educator Award.

And, don't forget to tell your colleagues and peers.

I've reviewed the Collegiate Award applications for the past two years, and the work some of these students are doing blows my mind! I am amazed at the commitment and curiosity these young women show in their respective fields.
